Dear potential Arts & Health Vendor,

If you own a business or provide a service that takes a holistic approach to health and wellbeing, then you will want to partner on this event celebrating Arts & Health Month in Mercer County.

Join us November 4, 2023 for a day-long celebration as we kick off our initiative with free interactive workshops that are open to the public, a Vendor Alley, a keynote speaker, and a reception for organizations, sponsors, and the press.

Want to share a table with a partner? We are open to your requests.
